

CORPAC 101: What is CORPAC?

CORPAC (Central Ohio REALTORS® Political Action Committee) is the vehicle Columbus REALTORS® members use to promote responsible home ownership and private property rights through the support of real estate friendly political candidates and issues impacting the REALTOR® profession.

Created in 1994, CORPAC is one of the largest political action committees (PACs) in the state of Ohio, raising $193,041 via 3,102 individual contributors in 2017. These investments are used by CORPAC locally and support the larger RPAC (REALTORS® Political Action Committee) at both the state and federal levels of government.

CORPAC Keys to Success

- 1. People - CORPAC's power lies within it's numbers; together we represent a strong voice on Capitol Hill
- 2. Representation - Day to day professional representation at all levels of government
- 3. Impact - Allows members to financially support candidates (and incumbents), who share the organizations collective values

CORPAC Rules to Remember

- CORPAC is bi-partisan! Our only special interest is home ownership and the protection of Your business.
- The CORPAC Governing Board interviews and allocates financial support to local candidates each year; making recommendations to OAR and NAR Trustees for candidate support at the state and federal levels of government.
- 33% of your donation stays right here in central Ohio, the remaining 67% is split between Ohio RPAC (at OAR), and national RPAC (at NAR).
- CORPAC is a member driven organization and our doors are always open!
- CORPAC not only represents REALTORS® and their affiliates, but the consumer. Share with your clients how CORPAC and RPAC protecting them.
